

THE BREADTH OF CHRISTIANITY.

CHANCELLOR VINCENT'S BACCALAUREATE BEFORE THE C. L. S. C. CLASS.

Chautauqua, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1894.—The Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle of '94 attended the morning service in the Amphitheatre in a body to-day. The class will be recognized next Wednesday morning, at which time the diplomas will be given to each graduate. The baccalaureate sermon was preached by Bishop John H. Vincent, Chancellor of Chautauqua. Bishop Vincent's theme was "The Breadth of Christianity," and his text, Psalms xxix, 9. "I have seen an end of all perfection, but thy commandment is exceeding broad." The Bishop took up the numerous arguments often advanced against the narrowness of the church and of Christianity, and asserted that when at times seemed narrow resulted at length in the greatest possible breadth. He decried the ill-feelings and undignified spirit often displayed, especially in rural communities, by one church against another, and thought it was fast passing away. He urged charity and breadth of view and sympathy, and thought the narrowness of view and bigotry were the result of the spirit always of that tendency of human nature, which has never yet been quite gone. He does not believe that any one would teach or preach in any church if his views are contrary to those of that church any more than a Democrat should be allowed to teach democracy under Republican auspices. He urged a breadth of culture, and a knowledge of science.

The vesper service was held in the Amphitheatre at 5 o'clock, and a brief address was delivered by Bishop Vincent. His subject was "The Uses and the Losses and Remedies of Doubts Among Young People."

A sacred song service was held in the Amphitheatre at 7:30 p.m. Dr. James L. Hurley, of New York, gave Biblical readings, with illustrations, his subject being "The Footprints of the King." An Athenian water-drawing service was held by 9 o'clock, and a short service was delivered by Dr. Richard L. Holman of Pittsburgh.

This evening marks the beginning of the closing week of this assembly season. The program is good, better than usual, for the last week. Saturday day is Grand Army Day, and an audience will be delivered by Secretary of State Palmer, and a lecture on "Abraham Lincoln," by Dr. S. Parks Calman, of New York.

MR. KRAFT TO CONTINUE HIS FIGHT.

WILL WORK TO SHUT UP AN ONOXIOUS LIQUOR SHOP NEAR HIS HOME.

G. A. Kraft has for thirty years been a telegraph operator for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and owns the houses Nos. 22 and 23 West Twelfth-st. He is a fatherly looking man, and with his family occupies No. 23L. For a number of years No. 23 West Twelfth-st. was, it is alleged, a disorderly house. The police made no effort to close the house, and about two months ago succeeded in having the place raided and the occupants driven from the premises. Mr. Kraft then turned his attention to a rumshop kept by a man named Elchner, at No. 22 West Twelfth-st., but his efforts to close the place have not been quite successful. He not satisfied with keeping a liquor shop, turned his yard into a small garden at the beginning of the summer, and Mr. Kraft alleges that night was made hideous by the singing and talking of sailors and women who frequented the garden. Mr. Kraft has appealed repeatedly to Captain Delaney, of the Ninth Precinct, about the place, but no good came of it, and the mighty organist said:

"About 4 o'clock in the morning Mr. Kraft was awakened by the singing and talking in Elchner's yard, and on going to the rear window heard a man two doors below him say: 'If you don't stop your noise in there we'll break the place up.' Mr. Kraft was answered with leers and obscene language. Mr. Kraft dressed himself and went into the street to find a policeman. He ran into the house, where Captain Delaney was. He told him his case to the house, and then shaking his finger at the magistrate said: 'This place was raided less than a month ago, and the scrubwoman was fined $25, while that villain who keeps the place got $250.'"

Mr. Kraft did not answer him, and continuing the man said: "I'd like to see you in your face, you drunk, bring you own the whole Ninth Ward." Mr. Kraft went to the Charles-st. station and complained to Captain Delaney. Mr. Kraft was detailed to take him, and went to the saloon, where Captain Delaney was. Mr. Kraft appeared in Jefferson Market Court on the 14th, when President Hayes arrived. He sat at his case to the house, and then shaking his finger at the magistrate said: "This place was raided less than a month ago, and the scrubwoman was fined $25, while that villain who keeps the place got $250."

"Don't shake your finger at me, sir," said Justice Hogan.

Mr. Kraft then said that he was a matter of indifference to him, and Justice Hogan, in the case of the raid on the Parkhurst Saloon, "How about the police?" continued Mr. Kraft.

Policeman Quinn then testified that Preston refused to sell him anything, although he had the side door open. Preston was held for examination to-day.

TWO RAIDS IN CHINATOWN.

Captain Bergfeld, of the Elizabeth-st. station, raided the clothing store of Choo Gow, at No. 16 Doyers-st., on Saturday night. Gow was arraigned before Justice Ryan in the Tombs Court yesterday morning and charged with selling opium. Detective Devlin said that he entered the store and saw a Chinaman buy the drug. Gow was held for trial.

Eleven Chinamen were enjoying the game of "shovey" in the apartments of Yuen Gee, at No. 36 Mott-st., on Saturday night, when Captain Bergfeld and his men burst into the place. Yuen Gee was arrested and was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court yesterday before Justice Ryan. Gee was held in default of $500 bail for trial, and the players were fined $5 each.

JUSTICE HOGAN WOULD HAVE THEM THRASHED.

James Butler, of No. 68 Leroy-st., and Gilbert Oster, of No. 11 Christopher-st., two "tough" young men, were arraigned in Jefferson Market Court yesterday by Policeman Farrell, of the Ninth Precinct, who charged them with annoying an Italian pedler named Joseph. He said to the policeman Butler and Oster: "Come to the policeman Butler and Oster now, but spend their time annoying and robbing Italians. Justice Hogan fined them both $10, and in doing so said, 'I have my way, and I would give you thirty lashes apiece on your bare backs instead of lining you.'"
